RUSSIA NEEDS MILLIONS OF TONS OF FOOD SAYS NANSEN

Head Of Relief Board Is Certain Soviets Will Play The Game

NOT OPTIMISTIC

Others Fear Complication If Relief Work Has Petrograd Office

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, Sept. 6.—The text of the agreement signed by Dr. Nansen and the Soviet Government at Moscow on August 27 is now published. The Soviet requests a credit of £10,000,000 from the European Governments, and declares its readiness to assume whatever obligations are demanded of it. It says the distribution of relief will be carried out through the International Relief Committee at Moscow, assisted by a limited number of representatives of the chief lending governments.

Dr. Nansen, who is the principal Norwegian delegate to the League of Nations, has arrived here. In the course of an interview he denied that his agreement with the Soviet Government would prevent the control and distribution of relief, and showed that it was the Soviet's demand of credit that chiefly excited criticism in London and Paris, where the opinion was held that such a demand by a Government that repudiated its national debt was serious enough to engage the attention of the Supreme Council.

Dr. Nansen said he was confident, from his experience in relieving prisoners, that the Soviet Government would "play the game." He said the reason that credit was desired was the inadequacy of charity to meet the situation. Altogether four million tons of foodstuffs were wanted. The Soviet hoped by means of taxation to pay for half of this, but £30,000,000 credit was needed to acquire the remainder. Each of the lending Governments could have three representatives on the spot to control the purchase and distribution of foodstuffs. It was essential, he emphasised, to act as speedily as possible.

London, September 6.—Well-informed circles are not optimistic as to the nature of the expected Soviet reply to the wirelessed request that a commission should be permitted to proceed to Russia to supervise the famine relief work.

The International Commission is anxious to begin its labors in South Russia at Novo Rossisk, where the famine is worst, and gradually to work northwards, but the Soviet insists that the relief shall be centered at Petrograd, and doubt is expressed as to whether in the latter case relief will penetrate beyond there.

The officials of the Russian Trade delegation in London meanwhile declare that the period of worst distress has passed for the time being, but will recur between the time when the surplus of the September harvest is consumed and the next crop is gathered, unless help is forthcoming. They estimate that the peasants in the famine areas will require 700,000 tons of grain to tide over the interval.

Paris, Sept. 6.—The Narva correspondent of the Chicago Tribune telegraphs that, according to Esthonian railway-men, Red soldiery who recently concentrated at Yamburg seized the first shipment of American relief food consigned from Riga to Moscow.

A despatch from Moscow states that Bolshevik newspapers assert that American agents took part in a revolutionary plot which, it is alleged, was recently discovered at Petrograd.

An American Red Cross official, Captain Kilpatrick, has arrived in Paris after nine months' detention in Soviet prisons. He says that between 150,000 and 200,000 prisoners of thirty nationalities are suffering untold misery in Moscow alone.

HUNGARIAN SITUATION IS SERIOUS; A REBELLION

Cross Austrian Frontier And Force Defenders To Quit Posts

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 6.—The situation in West Hungary has taken a more serious turn. Reuter's Vienna correspondent reports that 2,500 regular Hungarian troops crossed the frontier into lower Austria and attacked the village of Kirchschlag forcing the Austrian Gendarmerie and National Guard to withdraw with a loss of two killed and twenty wounded after several hours fighting. Austrian reinforcements have been despatched from Winer Neustadt.

The Hungarian Minister at Vienna has handed the Austrian Chancellor a Note declaring that the Hungarian Government are ready formally to hand over Burgenland to the Entente Mission at Oedenburg and to recognise Austria's soverignty over the territory but that they will not evacuate the territory until negotiations are entered into. Austria however declines to enter into negotiations until Burgenland has been handed over.

Reuter's Paris correspondent learns that according to the latest advices the Austrians have reoccupied Kirschlag.

BAVARIA STILL HOSTILE

London, Sept. 6.—The prospects of Bavaria yielding to pressure from the German Imperial Government seem to have diminished. Reuter's Berlin correspondent telegraphs: "According to a Munich telegram, well-informed persons there regard the situation between Bavaria and Germany as far graver than it was during the recent crisis over the disbandment of the Einwohnerwehr. The non-Socialist press at Munich is violently attacking the Berlin Government for interfering in Bavaria's internal affairs."

The Augsburger Abendzeitung, which is still appearing, despite the Berlin Government's recent order for its suppression, alleges that the German Government is "trying to re-establish a Red Dictatorship in Bavaria."

Vorwaerts declares that the movement in favor of secession from the Central Government is growing throughout Bavaria.

Heavy Losses In Attack On Ichang

(Staff Wire To The China Press)

Hankow, Sept. 7 (6:20 p.m.).—Hard fighting continues with Hupoh troops holding their own throughout Tuesday in the outskirts of the city of Ichang.

Two hundred Northern troops were driven into the Yangtsze and drowned. The casualties total 10,000. Residents of Ichang are escaping on boats, not wishing to undergo the chance of hostilities.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hankow, September 6.—A wireless message reports that there was heavy firing last night at Ichang, and shots fell intermittently on the Bund from the Szechuenese forces in the hills behind the city.

The apparent object of the Szechuenese is to obtain possession of $3,000,000 of salt revenue which is at present on its way to the Central Government. It is very doubtful whether its defenders will be able to hold Ichang.

Many Chinese are coming down the river from Ichang.

A number of Japanese and "Taikoo" lighters have been plundered at Yuenkiang, on the Tung Ting Lake, by wandering soldiers.

TELLS WU "CARRY ON"

The Peking Cabinet has telegraphed to General Wu Pei-fu instructing him to carry on the fighting. General Wu asked what total amount of funds the Government had available to finance the campaign. He recommended the early conclusion of peace, because the Consular Body at Hankow strongly recommended the cessation of fighting, which was also the opinion of the U. S. Minister, Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, who recently passed Hankow.

Tuchun Chi She-yuan of Kiangsu has sent 700,000 rounds of ammunition to Hankow in consideration for which, it is reported, General Wu Pei-fu will recommend Tuchun Chi for the post of High Inspecting Commissioner of Kiangsu, Anhui and Kiangsi.

Tuchun Tsao Kun has recently recruited 6,000 men on the plea that he will use them to reinforce the forces in Hupeh and Shensi.

The Mixed Brigade of Shantung and the 25th Division at Shunteh left for Hankow on September 7 and 5 respectively.

On September 5 the Ministry of War sent $10,000 worth of prizes to be distributed to the soldiers that were fighting at the front in Hupeh and Hunan.

Ammonia Thrown In Eyes Of The Jailer Helps Two Escape American Prison

Mysterious Woman Who Carried Drug Is Quarry Of Police—U.S. Marshal Sees Fugitives Escape Over Wall

A spectacular jail break was effected last evening when H. W. Muncie and Amos Norman, two prisoners in the little United States Court jail, attacked their jailer, E. C. Eberle, with a blinding phial of ammonia, also a clubbed revolver, and escaped from the court building to temporary safety. The men are both deserters from the United States Army.

The actual escape was craftily planned and easily accomplished. Two Russian women of striking appearance figured in the preparations for escape. One is believed to be Norman's wife. The other's part in the affair is a mystery. It is believed that these women furnished the prisoners with the revolver, provided means of escape from the vicinity of the jail, and funds for travel.

ESCAPE WATCHMAN

The jail break occurred at 6:50 o'clock last evening, just ten minutes before the Sikh night watchman of the U.S. Court building comes on duty, and at a time when few but the night jailer could be on the premises.

Norman callld to the jailer asking for a bottle of water. Eberle descended the steep stairway to the barred door, unlocked the door and prepared to enter. As he straighted up again Norman threw the ammonia into his eyes, burning and blinding him into a helpless condition while Muncie held E. S. Brodie, the one other prisoner in the jail at bay with his levelled revolver. After forcing Brodie into one of the rear cells, the pair met at the doorway, beat Eberle about the head and face with the revolver until he was all but unconscious, and quietly escaped down the side stairway to the street.

Here the pair almost met with capture. Marshal N. R. Lurton, of the United States Court, emerged from the American Post Office on the opposite side of the street just as Norman and Muncie left the court building.

Something in the fugitives' actions aroused his interest. He thought it unusual that strangers should come from the back en-

French Police To Call Contractor To Account For Hotel's Collapse

Owing to the danger of further walls falling from the former Hotel de France which collapsed Tuesday night causing serious injury to three workmen, and possibly the death of four other workmen who are missing, and may be under the debris, the French Municipal Council has enjoined the contractor from building operations.

According to the French Police a summons has been issued for the contractor to appear in the Mixed Court Friday morning to answer the charge of faulty construction which endangered the lives of the workmen. The French Police authorities stated last night that the contractor had not been found.

Yesterday the French Municipal Council ordered an eight-foot barrier erected on Rue Montauban in front of the structure, allowing a narrow passage for pedestrians on the opposite side of the street. No further work was done to remove the debris, for it was feared the remaining walls would fall if the mass of beams and masonry was removed.

BOUGHT FOR EXCHANGE

The Hotel de France was bought, August 1, by Mr. Tsu Lan-tang, a piece goods merchant of Shanghai, who was remodelling the building for a Silk and Cocoon Exchange. The contractor was given six weeks to make the alterations, and had doubled his working shifts to complete the work in the specified time.

The cause of the accident is not yet determined, but it is supposed that the shores under the concrete arch of the new doorway were removed before the concrete was set. The doorway and verandah fell at 8 o'clock, and, it is feared, entrapped four workmen whose bodies have not been recovered. The workmen in the building had plenty of warning to leave the building, but they watched the rescue operations from the upper windows, and consequently fell with the beams and flooring when the inner wall collapsed a half hour later.

China, Land Of Flowery Humor And Parent Of Puns

By Elsie McCormick

When the various races of the world were being created [illegible] of the primeval clay, all [illegible] boxes that happened to [illegible] after were mixed together and presented to China. Unlike their neighbors of the northern islands, who never see a joke except with the aid of four diagrams and a capital operation, the Chinese have a sense of humor that wins them the prize as playboys of the Eastern world.

It is true, of course, that their sense of the ludicrous is not always appreciated by foreigners. Ladies of undue avoirdupois do not become enthusiastic over the facetious comments of chair-coolies, even if they don't understand them; and the one-yard grin with which the house-boy announces the tipping over of the goldfish bowl or the non-appearance of the washman does not usually strike pleasant sparks on the countenance of his employer.

However, those who understand the mysterious, unconjugated monosyllables of the various Chinese languages know that at least ten good puns sprout on every verbal root, that the double entendre is entirely overshadowed by the triplet, quartet, and sextet variety, and that the man who can't turn a commonplace remark into a neat saying is either dead or temporarily gagged. Similar names for different characters opens up a fertile field for the Chinese jester, and the classical references with which their literature is profusely decorated gives further opportunities for making words lay down, roll over, or play dead at the command of the speaker. The figure of a bat, for instance, symbolises happiness because the characters for the two words are pronounced alike.

PUNS ARE DEEP

Beside the puns, which are often highly technical and would hardly call for encores if given in the course of a Western musical comedy, there are a number of stories with a point quite independent of word play. Doctors are usually the hardy heroes of these tales, with mother-in-laws, over-tamed husbands, misers, and country yokels sharing the honors. In fact, most of the characters in the foreign humorists' bag of tricks are indigenous to China as well, with the possible exception of summer-resort bathing suits, homemade "hootch" and Reno divorcees.

One of the popular tales of the miser type concerns a rich man who said to a neighbor famous for his love of cash: "I am willing to give you a million taels, provided you permit me to kill you immediately afterwards."

"I'd rather that you'd give me 500,000 taels and only half kill me," replied the miser, thus suggesting distantly a story of a clothing dealer and a railroad accident that we have since on Broadway.

Another tale, which parodies the popular veneration for antiquity, tells of a man who appealed to a professional letter-writer for a missive of condolence on the occasion of his mother-in-law's death. The letter writer accordingly delivered a copy of a model epistle composed by one of China's literary heroes.

MASKEE THE SEX

"But this letter was written for the death of a man, not for a woman," said the indignant customer. "I can't use it. It's wrong."

"One of the great men of antiquity composed that letter," said the scribe, in a very upstage manner. "How could he make a mistake? Do you mean to set yourself up above the masters?"

The unfortunate medical profession is lampooned with a lack of mercy which makes us believe that the editor of "Life" must have spent a previous incarnation in China. One hears, for instance, of the doctor who remarked, after having killed a patient in an attempt to straighten a crooked spine. "But I only guaranteed to straighten his back. I didn't say he'd be alive when I finished." There are reports, too, of the doctor who carefully cut off the ends of an arrow in a soldier's arm, leaving the iron in his flesh.

"Why don't you take it all out?" asked the warrior.

"I am a surgeon and therefore look only after the outside of the body," the medical man answered. "If you want any inside work done, you'll have to call a physician."

PAGE THE DOCTOR

At least one of the Chinese tales of the medical profession has been redecorated with Western trimmings and presented to the Ladies' Home Journal or some other haven for safe and sane jokes. The original Chinese version concerns the illness of the Lord of Purgatory and the dispatching of messengers to secure one of the most eminent medical practitioners from the land of the living.

"But how shall we be able to pick out a good doctor?" asked the shadow chit coolies, as they were about to depart for the upper regions.

"Select the one who has the fewest spirits hanging around his door," commanded the Lord of Purgatory.

The messengers searched industriously, but before the gate of every doctor they saw a swarming mass of phantome who had achieved their status through the assistance of the

Miss Eugenie Carneiro Gets G.$1,200 Award From U.C. Hospital School

Miss Eugenie Carneiro, Shanghai girl, has been awarded one of two scholarships at the University of California Hospital, San Francisco, where she is completing a course in nursing. The scholarship is for G.$1,200 and carries with it the privilege to pursue advance study on any line of specialisation Miss Carneiro may choose, in either New York or London.

A graduate of St. Joseph's Institute, Shanghai, Miss Carneiro began her study of nursing at Dr. Anne Walter Fearn's Hospital, leaving for America in July of 1919.

The scholarship was awarded for general excellence in all subjects. There were 144 competitors for the scholarships.

BANDIT ESCAPES KILLING GUARDS IN HIS GETAWAY

(Special Cable to THE CHINA PRESS)

Tacoma (via Manila), Sept. 6.—Roy Gardener, the California mail bandit, has escaped from the McNeil's Island prison in a spectacular break for liberty in which other life sentence prisoners took part.

Several guards were killed in attempting to re-capture the fugitives. One prisoner named Everett was wounded while scaling the wall. Another, L. Bogart, was re-captured.

Gardener is believed to be wounded. This is his third escape, having eluded the guards twice while enroute to prison.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS IS SELECTING COMMITTEE

Many Angles Of Natl. Life Embodied In Its Activity

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Geneva, Sept. 6.—The second day of the session of the Assembly of the League of Nations was devoted to the election of officials of the Bureau and Committees.

The President, M. van Karnebeek, submitted and the Assembly adopted, the proposal that the committees should be reclassified as follows:

First Committee to deal with legal and constitutional questions.

Second Committee to deal with technical organisation (transport, communications, economic and financial organisation, hygiene.)

Third Committee to deal with disarmament and blockade.

Fourth Committee to deal with finance.

Fifth Committee to deal with questions of humanitarian and social interest (white slave traffic, typhus, opium, etc.)

Sixth Committee to deal with political questions, including admission of new members.

These committees in the afternoon elected their presidents and vice-presidents as follows:

President.—First Commission, Signor Scialoja (Italy); second, M. Take Jonescu (Rumania); third, M. Branting (Sweden); fourth, (Chile); fifth, Mr. C. J. Doherty (Canada); sixth, Senor de Gimeno (Spain).

Vice President.—First Commission, Senor Irrutia (Colombia); second, Senhor di Andrade (Portugal); fourth, M. Zahle (Denmark); fifth, Mr. Tang Tsin (?) (China); sixth, Senor Escalante (Venezuela).

The Presidents of the six Committees are ex-officio vice-presidents of the Assembly.

The Assembly also elected by direct ballot six other vice presidents:

M. Leon Bourgeois (France), (2[illegible] votes); Senhor da Cunha (Brazil), (29 votes); Mr. Balfour (Great Britain), (25 votes); Viscount Ishii (Japan), (23 votes); M. Hymans (Belgium), (22 votes); Dr. Benes (Czecho-Slovakia), (20 votes).

On the motion of M. Hymans supported by Lord Robert Cecil (South Africa) the Assembly decided that on account of its importance the general debate on the report of the activities of the Council and Secretariat for the past year should take place in public session instead of being first taken in committee.

Geneva, September 6.—Commenting on Dr. Wellington Koo's speech at the opening of the Assembly of the League of Nations yesterday, the Journal de Geneve says that Dr. Koo possesses the necessary qualities to command respect as an orator, namely, intelligence and a very clear enunciation. Although so young, he laid down with firmness and dignity the task awaiting the Assembly.

Fire Brigade Report For July

The total number of calls to fires or supposed fires, in July, was 25, as against 14 for the corresponding month last year. The damage on assessed property within the Settlement is estimated at Tls. 15,600 (Foreign Tls. 2,650; Chinese Tls. 12,950), as against Tls. 5,295 (Foreign Tls. 2,025; Chinese Tls. 3,270) during July 1920. The property at risk is estimated at Tls. 2,288,000 (Foreign Tls. 2,146,000 Chinese Tls. 142,000), as against Tls. 520,000 (Foreign Tls. 480,000; Chinese Tls. 40,000) for the corresponding period last year.

There were 19 small fires, four false alarms and two fires outside the Settlement.

The principal supposed causes of the fires within the Settlement are as follows: dropped match or cigarette end, fusing of electric wires, sparks from stove, curtain in contact with lamp, clothing in contact with stove pipe, loss paper, over boiling tar boiler.

Sixteen houses were more or less damaged by fire, smoke and water.

During the month the Department machines traveled approximately 143 miles to and from fires.

trance to the court and jail. He watched them, wondering.

LURTON WATCHES THEM

The men turned without hesitation toward the river. Lurton followed. He kept them in sight in the half-dark until they reached the rail and wall at the water's edge. Then they disappeared. Lurton concluded that the two men had turned into the back road to the Japanese consulate. He returned to his office 30 minutes later to learn of the escape.

The real hero of the incident was the third prisoner, Brodie. Threatened with a revolver by the determined jail breakers, he was forced to permit their escape without a warning outcry. Yet as soon as the pair were well away, he dashed through the open door to the apartments of Marshal Lurton and District Attorney Holcomb in an attempt to give the alarm. When he found that the building was practically deserted of foreigners he returned to his cell, and called through the bars of his window to Postmaster Everett across the street for assistance.

Then he turned to the helpless Eberle. He telephoned for medical assistance, and when Dr. Thomas B. Dunn arrived on the scene a few moments later Brodie was in full charge and assisted the physician while Eberle's wounds were dressed. When Head Jailor Ludwig and other officials arrived Brodie resumed his place behind the bars.

WOMEN MADE CALL

The women involved in the escape called upon Norman and Muncie yesterday shortly after noon. It is believed that they handed the revolver through the barred door at that time.

Immediately upon leaving the jail they went to the United States Post Office, coming out on the street soon thereafter, with a letter in hand, evidently just received. They were seen to hold the letter aloft as a signal to the prisoners who were watching them from the window of their cells across the street. They called to Norman in Russian. It is believed they were passing the word that all was well for the projected escape.

The ammonia used to blind Eberle was obtained yesterday by Norman from the jailor. He feigned a headache and insisted that only ammonia would relieve him. He was given about half an ounce and pretended to rub it on his head. Brodie, however, said last night that Norman had secreted the drug in an empty cigarette tin, and it was from this receptacle that it was thrown in Eberle's face. Eberle was seriously injured.

Norman was arrested a month ago by Assistant Marshall Gardner, in Hongkew, as a deserter from the 15th Infantry at Tientsin. He is the man who was recognised at the Olympic games by an officer of the 15th Infantry, and arrested, only to escape again by jumping from the second story window of his home where he was taken upon his saying that he wanted to get his baggage.

MUNCIE UNDER CHARGE

Muncie was arrested Monday charged with obtaining two platinum watches from a Shanghai storekeeper by the issuance of a false check. He gave his name when arrested as John Wesley Morris. At the preliminary hearing yesterday he admitted his pseudonym and acknowledged that he was a deserter. His case was adjourned until Saturday morning to obtain advice from his former commanding officer at Tientsin, and to allow him opportunity to obtain counsel.

A general police alarm has been turned out, both by the Municipal police and the Chinese authorities, throughout China. It is believed that the men, perhaps with the two women already have departed from Shanghai. They looked up train times to Hangchow on Tuesday according to Brodie. They broke jail at 6:50 p.m. The Hangchow train leaves Jessfield station at 7:30 and Siccawei at 7:36 o'clock. It is believed the party may have made this train by use of an automobile.

Says State Must Give Workers Aid

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 6.—The problem of unemployment was dealt with at the Trade Union Congress at Cardiff today, which passed resolutions expressing grave apprehension at it and reaffirming the principle that it was the duty of the State to provide work or adequate maintenance for every willing worker. It approved the action of the Boards of Guardians which, in the absence of proper Government assistance, had seriously endeavored adequately to relieve the urgent necessities of the workless, but expressed the opinion that such a burden should not be imposed on the ratepayers and must be removed from them.

The Congress also demanded the immediate summoning of Parliament and the introduction of practicable schemes of work without delay, with the necessary financial provision, and called upon the Government to remove the gross inequality of rating in London.

medical man in question. After a long and weary journey, they discovered a physician haunted by only two spirits, and promptly dispatched him to the chamber of their lord.

WHY FEW VICTIMS

"You must be a very great doctor," said the suffering ruler when he heard the story. "How long have you been practising?"

"For a day and a half," the physician replied.

A bit peculiar is the sense of humor displayed by China's famous melancholy maiden, who remained glum and smileless until one day when a number of feudatory princes were called to defend the state on a false alarm. The sight of the warriors all dressed up like firemen without a fire so delighted the funereal damsel that she burst into a loud laugh and chortled merrily at intervals for the rest of her days.

Gloomy damsels, or scowling workmen, or grim ascrtics are rare in China. Even the Buddha is a rotund, and chuckling gentleman, not at all similar to the slim-waisted, meditating saints of Burma and Ceylon. A laugh has a higher market value than a Chinese sermon, and a bon mot is prized above the long liturgy of the gods.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 4.—Mr. Hsung Hsi-ling has recently been in consultation with the Minister of the Interior, Mr. Chang Chih-tan, regarding the question of funds to carry out construction of the projected highway between Peking and Tientsin. It is understood that the task of raising such funds presents some difficulties.

RUMANIA READY TO MAKE TREATY

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, August 28.—Rumania has drafted the men due for enlistment in 1922.

It is reported that the King and the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Rumania are going to Paris to conclude if possible a military pact with France.

Rumania hopes to get liberal assistance from France in the event of a war with Soviet Russia.

The Rumanian Government in answering Mr. Chicherin's note declares that no Rumanian forces are being concentrated at the Bessarabian frontier.

(Dalta News Agency)

Chita, August 30.—The management of the Chinese Eastern Railway has borrowed 500 000 roubles from the Yokohama Specie Bank of Chosen, according to a report. The Board of the Directors of the railway now declares that the management has no right to borrow money from foreign banks and orders it to cancel the loans and to obtain money from the Chinese banking institutions instead.

FREE CHINA IS DR. SUN'S WORD TO CONFERENCE

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Canton, September 6.—Dr. Sun Yat-sen has issued a manifesto to the Powers attending the forthcoming Pacific Conference, affirming that no settlement of the Far-Eastern question is possible unless China is liberated from a policy of aggression, and also from the Twenty-one Demands, and the series of secret agreements, loans and concessions, etc., concluded by Peking.

The manifesto concludes by declaring that, unless a Canton delegation takes part in the Conference, none of its decisions relating to China will be recognised as possessing any validity or force.

STAND OF SOUTH

(Kuo Wen News Agency)

Canton, September 6.—The Canton Government, through its representative in Washington, Mr. Ma Soo, has handed the following communication to the American Secretary of State:

"The Southern Government, which stands for the preservation of the law and constitution is the only legal and representative government of the Republic of China, and any appointment of delegates to the Pacific Conference should and must be made by that government only.

"As the Northern Government is illegal and not representative of the people, any questions raised by its delegates or any questions to which they give their approval cannot, and will not, be recognised by the Southern Government, and the Chinese people. Such questions will be declared invalid.

"Hsu Shih-chang, illegal president in Peking, is child of so-called a Parliament, which he himself admits is illegal. This so-called Parliament, realising its illegality, has automatically dissolved itself. In view of this, Hsu Shih-chang is not president of the Republic of China. On the contrary, through his illegal acts he is disqualified from holding this important post.

"You are requested to take note that the position of the Northern delegates in diplomatic affairs is not recognised by the Southern Government as being representative of the wish of the citizens of the Republic of China, and, as stated, any acts they may do, or any questions they may raise or pass will not be recognised by us, and are invalid."

WANT HARA TO ACT

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Sept. 6.—The importance with which the Washington Conference is regarded in Japan is significantly indicated by an authentic report to the effect that considerable pressure is being brought to bear on Mr. Hara by Government circles that he should himself represent Japan. As the time is approaching for the choice of delegates public opinion seems to be centering on Mr. Hara as the nation's fittest choice. It is reported that Mr. Hara hesitates to undertake this mission owing to his close party connections, but it is believed that he will ultimately accept.

300 Moplahs To Serve Two Years

(Reuter's Service)

Calicut, Sept. 6.—Over 300 Moplah rebels, arrested at Tanur and elsewhere, have been convicted by special magistrates under martial law and sentenced to two years' rigorous imprisonment for each offense—looting, removing rails, etcetra. They were committed to the Central Gaol at Coimratore.

CAN'T MORTGAGE GOODS

Chita, September 1.—According to recent arrivals from Vladivostok, 30,000 unemployed have been registered in that city. Merkuloff lately called an extra meeting of Vladivostok merchants and manufacturers to discuss the critical financial situation. No result was reached. The attempt to mortgage the goods stored in the Vladivostok warehouses has also failed.

MILLION CANDLE POWER FLARES TO AID BOMBERS

(Special Service to THE CHINA PRESS)

Seattle (via Manila), Sept. 6.—Initial tests in the use of giant flares for night bombing operations were carried out with success by the Air Service in a night attack on the battleship Alabama.

The light barrage let down by the night bombers consisted of flares of more than 200,000 candle power, which were attached to parachutes. The area of illumination is five miles, and the parachutes are constructed to reflect the glare downward.

The use of night flares in the past by night bombers has been restricted because the aviators were blinded by the glare and unable to distinguish their targets. These new flares remedy that defect, and the greenish white light enables the pilots to see their targets better than during the day.

The United States Army engineers report that flares of a million candle power, and of similar design, are under construction.

FOUR AVIATORS DIE IN WRECK OF ARMY PLANE

(Special Service to THE CHINA PRESS)

Charleston, W. Va. (via Manila), Sept. 7.—The bodies of four Army aviators were found in the wreck of a bombing aeroplane being used in the operations against the striking miners and which was seen to crash in flames near the town of Poe yesterday.

One of the men escaped with grave injuries. He is Corporal Alex C. Hazleton. The dead are Lieuts. P. L. Speck and W. S. Fitzpatrick, Sergt. A. R. Brown and Private W. B. Howard.

This is the third air disaster in two days. Yesterday two observation planes crashed on landing here.

13 Chinese Face Deportation Order

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 6.—Thirteen Chinamen were charged at Liverpool today with landing in the United Kingdom without permission. It was stated that the Home Secretary had ordered the deportation of six of the prisoners, and that four of the others had been recommended for deportation. The remaining three were remanded for further inquiries.

Two Chinamen, charged at Neath in South Wales with landing without permission, were sentenced to one month's imprisonment, and recommended for deportation.

Chinese Troops Rout Hunghutze

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 4.—General Chang Ching-huei, commander of the Chinese forces at Pangchiang, has telegraphed to the Government to report that a band of Mongol-Russian bandits who had been driven out of Urga attempted to invade Toulin and Taolimu on August 31.

Following a brave defense on the part of the Chinese troops there, the bandits were routed and are now retreating northward.

London's Tonnage Has Big Increase

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 6.—The Port of London was used to a much greater extent last year than in 1919, according to the new annual report. The total net tonnage of in-coming and out-going vessels was 32,758,604 tons as compared with the previous total of 26,335,191.

In connection with pilferage, the report chronicles 842 convictions of larceny and unlawful possession. There was a marked decrease of pilferage in the docks last year owing to the shipping police scheme.

MARINE CHANGES ARE ANNOUNCED

The following changes in the merchant marine service took place during the week:

Indo-China Steam Navigation Company—From reserve, Mr. P. Jowitt, to chief officer of the Choysang; acting chief officer of the Choysang, Mr. W. A. Balch, to second officer; acting second officer of the Choysang, Mr. W. H. Kernan, to supernumerary second officer of the Waishing; third engineer of the Hangsang, Mr. A. McNay, to the Suiwo; third engineer of the Suiwo, Mr. T. A. Malcolm, to the Hangsang.

"INSURRECTION" SAYS WEEKS OF MINERS STRIKE

(Special Service to THE CHINA PRESS)

Washington (via Manila), Sept. 6.—War Secretary Weeks in ordering the immediate entrainment of 4,000 more troops for the West Virginia coal fields declared:

"When railroads are closed down by armed forces and men march to and fro without let or hindrance, overcoming by force of arms all who oppose them, only one name applies and that is insurrection. I am here to put that insurrection down."

General Harry H. Bandholtz, former head of the Philippines Constabulary, has wired that the international vice-president of the Miners' Union, Philip Murray, joined in the request for more troops as did other union officials.

President Harding has placed in General Bandholtz' hands the proclamation declaring martial law and empowered Secretary Weeks to use or hold it as he saw fit.

After the troops had captured 400 armed miners, eighty of whom were released when they had been disarmed and their names taken, the situation cleared so that General Bandholtz recommended that some of the 2,100 men in the field be returned to their posts.

One miner who was captured said that dead and wounded were lying out on the mountain side and that none could reach them because of the concentrated machine gun fire.

LIU IS APPOINTED

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 4.—The Waichiaopu has appointed Mr. Liu Hsi-chang as chief of the First Section of the Treaty Department, Mr. Fang Yuan-hsi as chief of the Telegraphic Section of the General Department and Mr. Lin Tung-shih as a member of the Peace Treaty Commission.

Enormous Stores Of Food Needed By The Russians

a note from Chicherin addressed to all Governments. The People's Commissar of Foreign Affairs sets forth the true situation in the famine districts and appeals to all Governments not to hinder different organisations and private persons extending needed assistance.

The Russian Government, says this note, will gratefully accept all help, disregarding political motives.

U. S. HAS FREE HAND

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, August 20.—At Riga Mr. Litvinoff, representative of Soviet Government, signed an agreement with American Famine Relief Association, giving the latter the right of independent activity in famine relief work.

Mr. Garney, the representative of the United States of America, will make a report at the Supreme Council regarding the attitude of the United States on the question of the Powers' participation in rendering help to Russia. The discussion of the famine question in the Supreme Council has no connection whatever with the proposition of Mr. Hoover to help only the Russian children for the time being.

According to information from French sources, Washington is going to decide the question on a more general scale. The French Ambassador at Washington states that he has been instructed by Mr. Briand to declare that the French Government will participate in the famine relief.

Mr. Hoover has telegraphed to all branches of the American Red Cross to increase the staff of their Russian famine relief committees by fifty percent and to be ready for departure to Russia.

The All-Russian Central Famine Relief Committee appeals to all European and American people and their governments to extend fraternal help to the Russian people and also has asked them to create a favorable impression in their respective countries for the Russian delegation. The delegation is headed by Mr. Golovin, formerly President of the Second Duma, and includes Mr. Afsartihoff, Chairman of the Co-operatives' Conference at Moscow; Mr. Prokopovitch-Kuskovoi, Vice-Chairman of the Children's Salvation League; Mr. Prokopovitch, Food Commissar during the war; Professor Tsarevitch and Miss Alexandra Tolstoi, the daughter of Leo Tolstoi.

The Lithuanian Cabinet of Ministers has decided to despatch six hundred cars of food to Soviet Russia in addition to the help rendered by the public organisations in Lithuania.

The Nurenberg (Germany) Municipal Council has voted 50,000 marks for the Russian famine relief. The Berlin Trade Unions are appealing for help to the famine-stricken people.

The Second International at Amsterdam is calling a conference for devising means of relieving the famine in Soviet Russia. Mr. Neipart, a member of the Second International, says that the Second International must co-operate with the Third International in the famine relief at least.

INJURY NOT SERIOUS

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Sept. 6.—General Liang Chan-kong, the Chinese delegate to the League of Nations, who, as already reported, was in a motor car which collided with a lorry near Versailles, sustained an injury to his left hand, but this is not serious.

TELL LITTLE HSU THAT SHANGHAI IS NOT FOR HIM

In the current issue of the Municipal Gazette it is disclosed that Hsu Shu-cheng, better known as "Little Hsu," who was a prominent figure of the Anfu faction at Peking and has been a fugitive since the downfall of the Anfu party, was for a time a resident of the International Settlement. It is disclosed further that when it became known to the authorities that he was here the Municipal Council invoked an ancient right of the Settlement and notified him that he must leave.

In accordance with custom the circumstances in connection with the notification were not made public at the time it was issued as the council while, unwilling to harbour the former Anfuite, was also unwilling to thrust him into the hands of possible enemies.

The right to expel an individual from the Settlement is one that has not been exercised since 1913 when a notice similar to the one sent to Little Hsu was addressed to Chen Chi-mei, who was assassinated a year later in a Japanese house at 14 Rue Chapsal in the French Concession. Chen was a more or less famous leader of the rebels and was best known for his unsuccessful attempt to capture the Arsenal. He was later driven from the Woosung Forts.

The notice, dated July 6, that was addressed to Little Hsu was as follows:

"Sir.—I have to inform you that your presence in the Foreign Settlement of Shanghai is considered to be fraught with danger to peace and good order.

"I have therefore to notify you that the hospitality of the Foreign Settlement of Shanghai is denied to you.

"If, therefore, after receipt of this notice, you are found within the limits of the Settlement, you will render yourself liable to immediate arrest by the Municipal Police.

"By order of the Council.
"E. S. B. ROWE,
"Acting Secretary.

Odd Chinese Weapon In Mixed Court Case

For the first time in many months an extraordinary Chinese weapon called for want of a better name a 'fighting iron' figured in a case tried in the Mixed Court yesterday. The defendant, one Lieu Kwei-say, was convicted of a charge of assault and was given a sentence of a year's imprisonment to be followed by expulsion. Testimony given at the hearing was to the effect that Lieu Kwei-say attacked another Chinese on Jessfield Road, using the fighting iron which was produced as evidence. The weapon is a bar of iron some 18 inches in length with a hand grip and has the peculiar feature of being studded with sharpened needle-pointed prongs so that if the person attacked grasps it his hands are torn to ribbons on the prongs.

The weapon was confiscated by the police.

The Rev. James Blair Cochran

The passing of Rev. James Blair Cochran, which took place in Plainfield, New Jersey, U.S.A., on August 31, will bring a pang of deep and real sorrow to the large company of friends gathered by him during twenty years of life in China.

Finishing his collegiate studies at Princeton College (now Princeton University) in 1896 at the age of twenty-two, and his theological course at Union Seminary three years later, he arrived in China in 1899 and spent three years in acquiring the language and knowledge of the people and in gaining experience in the city of Nanking for the work to which he had given his life.

As one of a group four young college men, together with his wife and the wife of his brother Samuel Cochran, M.D., he went to open the field at Hwaiyuan city in Anhwei Province in 1902 and there remained building his life into the Christian communities in the city and outlying towns as these communities arose and grew under the patient, hopeful, and wise labors of the band. Hwaiyuan has become the mother of two full mission stations and the center of one of the most interesting mission enterprises in the land, but the strain of climate and exposure and care undermined a physical constitution never robust and necessitated return from the field in 1918 in failing health, which after brave earnest efforts to restore it gave way entirely, and he was translated peacefully into the land of eternal health and joy, whither his life partner had gone before. He leaves two sons and two daughters who give promise of possessing the beauty and the strength of soul of those who bore them.

James Cochran was keenly human—human in his love of good cheer, human in his fellowships (to meet him was to wish for meeting him again), human in his interest in all that interests both young and old; and his human kindness was hallowed and beautified by that deep reverence and fervor of soul, that intense loyalty to the way that is right, that generous judgment of his fellows, that hope and zest of spirit that disclose the real presence of Christ in a man.

As a suggestive and inspiring preacher, as a wise and companionable father, as a practical and winsome leader of youth, as a staunch and discerning friend, as an alert and progressive man of affairs, and above all as a man of loyalty and devotion to the Savior of Mankind, he leaves us gazing wistfully after him, better fitted to play the man ourselves because we witnessed his transformed and transforming manhood.

A WOMAN'S TROUBLES

Interesting Case In Ceylon

The case of Mrs. E. M. Fernando, wife of Mr. W. H. Fernando, stationmaster at Nugegoda on the Ceylon Government Railways, is of especial interest to women. Here are the facts as related by this lady:—

"After the birth of my son Denzil eight years ago I fell into a very poor state of health. Headaches troubled me continually, other ailments peculiar to my sex assailed me. I had almost unbearable backaches, and became so depressed that my husband had difficulty in persuading me even to go out for a walk. We consulted doctors and they were of opinion that my troubles were due to bloodlessness.

"My husband finally obtained a supply of Dr. Williams' pink pills for me in the hope of alleviating my miserable condition, and within two weeks from commencing to take these pills I felt a decided improvement. My appetite began to revive and the pains in my back and loins lessened in severity. My headaches also became less frequent and I began to take a more lively interest in things about me. Soon a healthy colour returned to my cheeks and I joined my husband with pleasure in his evening walks. In time all my aches and pains left me, and I found myself fully restored to health."

Dr. Williams' pink pills are an ideal tonic for all nervous, weak-blooded people, men and women too. Today is the best time to begin them. Of any dealer; or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road Shanghai, price $1.50 per bottle, $8 for six bottles, post free.

Send a postcard for a book that will tell you how to take care of your blood. It is free for the asking.

Tea Rollers Go On Strike In Canton
(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Canton, Sept. 1.—No sooner has one strike ended than another begins in Canton. This time the workers of the tea-leaves union are giving the Police trouble. The tea-house waiters have returned to work, but the firms looking after the preparation of the leaves of this national drink are still out.

Not only the city laborers but also those in the rural districts are demanding better conditions, and the firecracker factories in Pingti, a group of some 21 villages near Canton, are now idle, affecting more than 90 concerns and nearly a thousand permanent employes, besides casual labor.

Sea-Sickness Can be Prevented!

No Drugging—No Unpleasant After-Effects.

An appreciative doctor wrote:—

"Lady——was placed under my care for the voyage Home. I could not accept any responsibility as I considered she was in great danger from haemorrhage should she vomit. She had always been a very bad sailor. As a precaution she was given two capsules of 'KIRBY'S SEA-SICK CURE' immediately she went on board. We got into rough water shortly before midnight, but Lady——had an undisturbed night's rest. She took one capsule half-an-hour before dressing. She had breakfast in the dining hall, and assured me she had no sensation of nausea or sickness. Although we had rough weather for five days, and at other periods of the voyage, she was not sea-sick. There was no nausea of any kind, and the remedy produced no after-effects."

JOHNNY WILSON RETAINS THE MIDDLEWEIGHT TITLE IN BOUT WITH THE CHALLENGER DOWNEY

Corrected Reports Show No Decision Rendered Though Downey Fought Better

Corrected advice received from Manila yesterday gives the result of the Bryan Downey-Johnny Wilson fight at Jersey City, for the Middleweight championship of the world resulted in a no decision, no knockout ending.

It was conceded however by men at the ringside that Downey had the better of the going. It was the second time in the last two months that the men had met, and each time Downey was given credit for a technical win. Wilson however still retains the title.

In the first bout on July 27 at Cleveland Downey was credited with having knocked Wilson out twice, due to faulty timing of the referee's count. The decision was for the title holder. The referee maintained that the knockout blow was a foul. The State Boxing Commission proclaimed Downey the winner, but other states abided by the decision of the referee.

Though Wilson retains the middleweight title because of the fact that no official decision was rendered, and no knockout was scored, the majority of people in the ringside seats expressed the belief after the fight that Downey had won on points.

Wilson's performance during the fight was so unsatisfactory that the State Boxing Commission ordered Promoter Tex Rickard to withhold his share of the purse pending an investigation.

There was no semblance at any time of a knockdown. Wilson clinched and stalled at every opportunity after landing a few blows with the hands.

The fight went 12 rounds. Thirty eight thousand people attended.

As the men left the ring Downey, the challenger was cheered by the spectators, but Wilson the champion was booed.

Final Entries Announced For Great St. Leger

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 6.—Granely was scratched for the St. Leger at 1.10 p.m. yesterday, and Glorioso and Star of Blyth at nine o'clock today.

The following is today's betting: 2 to 1 on Craig an Eran; 13 to 2 Thunderer; 8 to 1 Westward Ho; 100 to 8 Franklin; 25 to 1 Foundation and Polly Flinders; and 33 to 1 others.

Later.—The following is tonight's betting: 90 to 40 on Craig an Eran; 8 to 1 Thunderer.

Evans Wins Golf Title For Sixth Time

Chicago, July 16.—R. E. Knepper of Sioux City, Ia., champion, carried national champion Chick Evans of Chicago to he 34th green today before Evans could annex his sixth title as Western amateur golf champion, 3 up and 2 to play, at Westmoreland Country Club.

Evans did not have to extend himself however, as the Iowan was overgolfed, having played all last week in the Iowa championship and had hard matches this week in the Western.

Pete Herman Makes $22,300 In Fight

New York, July 27.—Pete Herman, who is on the way to New Orleans today to visit his family, is richer by $22,300 as the result of his recent fight with Joe Lynch, in which he recovered the bantamweight boxing title. Lynch received a flat guarantee of $37,500.

HEAT EFFECTS NETS BALL

Heat and cold have more effect on a tennis ball than almost anything. In cold weather the balls become heavy and soggy and need more hitting, while on a hot day they expand and one's stroke must be more sensitive; consequently on hot days the play is must faster. Players should keep the balls in a dry place of even temperature, then they will hold their life much longer and will not deteriorate and become soft. It is a great mistake, and one that is often made for players to leave the balls in a locker with damp clothing

Kelly Closing In On National League Record Home Run

As a rival of Babe Ruth in the home run stakes George Kelly long ago faded out of the picture, but the big first baseman of the Giants may yet have the satisfaction of setting a real record for circuit drives. Kelly hit his twentieth home run of the season at Chicago the other day, and he now faces a grand opportunity to make more homers this year than any National League player has made over a stretch of thirty-seven years. He needs only six more to do the trick, as Buck Freeman's twenty-five home runs in 1899 is the top mark since Williamson made twenty-seven in 1884. By hitting eight more homers this season Kelly can establish a National League record, and that is honor enough when one recalls that batsmen have been aiming at fencing in this league since 1876.

Interport Bowlers Sail Tomorrow On Trip To Hankow

Final In Singles Tourney Comes Saturday With Pairs On 18th

The Shanghai Lawn Bowls team will leave for Hankow on the Tuckwo tomorrow for the interport match. The following will represent Shanghai: T. R. E. Poignand, skip; H. S. Smyth, N. David, S. Chilver, R. P. Phillips, F. Lloyd and J. Ross-Young.

The final singles championship will be played Saturday on the Hongkew Green and the final in the pairs tourney comes on Sunday, September 18, at the Lawn Bowls Club green. G. Dunlop and R. C. Aitkenhead are to meet in the singles final while the pairs final will bring G. Dunlop and R. Simmons against A. W. McCallum and T. Harborne.

Fighters Who Fib Are Off The Card

Fighters who "fib" can't get away with it before Police Chief Drew of Oakland. Last week he caught Jack McCoy "fibbing" and kept him off the card. As a matter of fact McCoy had not committed a crime, but he was arrested on suspicion and released soon after. But in appearing for examination he denied to Chief Drew that he had ever been "pinched."

"Fighters must not 'fib' if they expect to fight on my cards," says Promoter Tommy Simpson. "The boxing commission here want everyone to tell the truth and the fighters must stand the test before they can appear."

Miss Bleibtrey Wins 100-Yd. Race

New York, July 17.—Miss Ethelda Bleibtrey of the New York Women's S. A., Olympic swimming champion, turned in the fastest 100-yard free style performance ever achieved by a woman in this country at a water carnival in the seventy-five-foot pool of the Brighton Beach Baths yesterday afternoon.

Starting from scratch in the elimination trials of a handicap race at the distance, she covered the course in the great time of 1m. 3 4-5s., beating the American record for a pool by 2 2-5s. and coming within two-fifths of a second of the world's open water record she dung up in Honolulu in May.

Johnny Kilbane Offered $25,000 To Box Herman

New Orleans, July 29.—Promoter Al Pillsbury has wired Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, an offer of $25,000 to meet Pete Herman, bantam-weight champion, in a decision bout here next fall. Herman already has signified his willingness to meet Kilbane.

Herman declared, on his return yesterday, he was also ready to meet Joe Lynch again if the former champion wanted another bout.

A. M. CO. LOSE IN FAST GAME WITH M.B.K. HONG NINE

Americans Rally In Final Inning But Fail By One Run To Tie

In spite of a last inning rally, which threatened to overcome their lead maintained through the seven inning game yesterday evening at the Race Course diamond, the Hong baseball team of the Mitsubishi Shoji Kaisha won over the Anderson Meyer nine by a score of 4-3.

The game was fast and well played. The Japanese showed the better class and strength throughout, until the last frame when the Americans got to their hurler for a series of safe hits. Maloney, pitching for the A. M. Co., held the score down by effective work.

Anderson Meyer might have tied the score in the seventh had Griffith not attempted to score from second on Maloney's single. Griffith popped an infield fly safely between pitcher and second. He then stole second. Maloney singled and Griffith tried to score. He was caught at the plate. Arnold following lined a hit to center that would easily have scored Griffith, had he waited.

The score, by innings follows:

M. B. Kaisha,	0	2	0	0	2	0	0	—4
A. M. Co.,	1	0	0	0	0	0	2	—3

The next Hong league game will be played on Saturday between the American Trading Co. and the Anderson Meyer Co. The Socony nine is practically out of the league for the present with players out of town, etc.

Sunday the baseball club's first team plays a team composed of Shanghai cricketers. Saturday's big game has not yet been announced.

Baseball Team Flies To Game In Aeroplane

Marysville, Calif., August 7.—Setting a precedent in athletics and aviation, the feat of transporting a whole baseball team from one city to another to meet in a diamond contest goes to Marysville and Woodland.

A big Falcon plane left a few minutes before 7 o'clock this morning, the twelve-passenger ship with cabins filled with players of the Marysville Merchants' baseball team, signally honored as no team in the world before has been honored.

Gibbons Scores 13th Knockout

(Special Cable to THE CHINA PRESS)

South Bend, Ind., via Manila, August 5.—Tom Gibbons technically knocked out Dan O'Dowd here tonight in the third round of a scheduled ten round bout.

Gibbons had O'Dowd beaten all of the way, and in the third the police stopped the fight just before the impending knockout to save O'Dowd further punishment.

The victory is Gibbons thirteenth consecutive knockout.

The Big Chance Came To Carpentier, Then Faded

As long as the manly art of self-defense endures they'll talk about Georges Carpentier's million dollar moment in his remarkable fight for the heavyweight title against Jack Dempsey.

Carpentier had that moment, and no man knows it better than Jack Dempsey himself. The champion laughingly attempted to shunt Carpentier's great moment aside by saying that the Old World idol merely "knocked him off balance."

Just a word to Jack Dempsey and any man who thinks as Dempsey does. At the time that terrific right landed on Dempsey in the second round he was close to the ropes on our side of the ring. We sat in the second row in the press stand and looked directly into Dempsey's face. It was more curiosity than anything else. Curious to know just what Jack was thinking of since that right had been bouncing off his chin in uncomfortable fashion. He was not more than ten feet from us at the time. The million dollar smash had not arrived. Carpentier's back was turned almost directly to us.

KNOCKED HIM COCKEYED

And then—Bang. Don't let Dempsey or any one else tell you that he was merely knocked off balance. He was knocked cockeyed! Some day, perhaps, Jack Kearns will tell you of the agony of that moment. His face turned scarlet and then purple. Dempsey had been stung to the very quick of him.

Kearns was within seven or eight feet from where we sat, and as Dempsey trembled like some great liner run aground, we turned to get a fleeting glance at Kearns. How did he take that punch? Good ringman that he is, and he was no mean fighter himself in his day, he instinctively reached for the smelling salts. He leaned forward from his perch on the steps leading to Dempsey's corner and he looked like a man about to suffer a stroke.

Then smash, smash, smash, smash, went that right again, and Dempsey was tottering before a man twenty pounds lighter than himself. The great right, with all the other great rights, had hit the button, but—Dempsey did not go down.

That was the whole story of the fight—the whole thrill for some, bitter disappointment for others—the million dollar moment gone glimmering, the threatened rush of 90,000 madmen on that ring

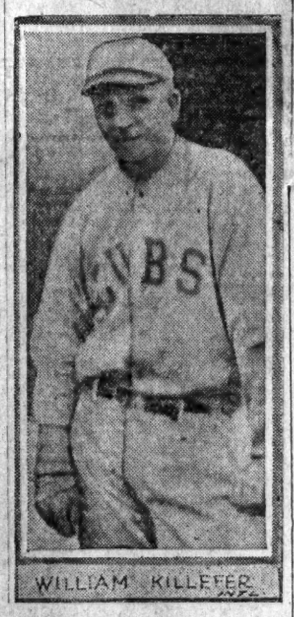
Killifer Succeeds Evers As Manager Of Cubs



William Killifer, catcher of the Chicago Cubs, has been appointed to succeed Johnny Evers as manager of that club. Evers, a member of the old Cup machine in the days when Frank Chance was manager, assumed the management of the club this season succeeding Fred Mitchell. Evers began the year with brilliant hopes, and the team started the race well. Then upsets began to happen, and the team started dropping rapidly in the race.

Killifer has been a member of the Chicago Cub four years, coming with his battery mate, Pitcher Grover Alexander, from Philadelphia for $65,000 and two players. He began his professional baseball career in 1907 in the Michigan State League. At the end of the 1908 season he went to San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League, and he played his first big league ball with the St. Louis Nationals the next year.

TENNIS CLUB'S MARKERS SHARE FIRST HONORS

S.C.C. And C. C. Split Singles While C.C.C. Win Over C.S.F. Doubles

The first round of the Markers' singles and doubles championships participated in by the Nos. 1 and 2 of the five of the clubs composing the Shanghai Lawn Tennis association found the boys of the Country Club and the S.C.C. dividing honors in the singles, and the C.C.C. boys taking the doubles over the C.S.F., all in two straight matches.

The singles matches had the following results:

Yao Tsao-king, No. 1 C.C., won over Chang Mow-der, No. A, S.C.C. 6-3, 6-1.

Yan May-may, No. 1 S.C.C., won over Li Te-seng, No. 2, C.C., 6-0, 6-3.

The only doubles match scheduled was:

Woo Yung-sung and Yao Hsih-kong, C.C.C., won over Wong Hu-chien and Yao Ha-nan, C.S.F., 6-4, 6-3.

Today's second round in the singles lists 4 matches, all on the S.R.C. Courts, as follows:

Wong Hu-chien, No. 1, C.S.F., vs. Woo Yung-sung, No. 1, C.C.C.

Tien Nao, No. 1, S.R.C., vs. Yao Tsao-keng, No. 1, C.C.

Yan May-may, No. 1, S.C.C. vs. Yao Shih-kong, No. 2, C.C.C.

King Foo, No. 1, S.R.C., vs. Yao Ha-nan, No. 2, C.S.F.

The two doubles matches today are set for the C.S.F. courts, as follows:

Yao Tsao-keng and Li Te-seng, C.C., vs. Woo Yung-sung and Yao Hsih-kong, C.C.C.

King Foo and Tien Nan, S.R.C., vs. Yan May-may and Chang Mow-der, S.C.C.

AUSTRALIANS GAIN AN EASY VICTORY OVER THE SOUTH OF ENGLAND BY INNINGS AND 46

Homesters Disposed Of In Second Innings For 199 Runs

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 6.—The Australians gained an easy victory today at Hastings over the South of England eleven, by an innings and 46 runs. The Englishmen, who had to follow on yesterday, and had lost two wickets for 15 runs before stumps were drawn, were disposed of for 199—the same total as that of their first innings—in just over two hours. Lee (Middlesex), was top scorer with 64 runs, made without giving a chance. Armstrong took four wickets for 51 and Mailey four for 97.

Cricket Club Entertains At Concert-Dance

One of the best concerts given in Shanghai for sportsmen was given at the Shanghai Cricket Club house and grounds last night.

An excellent program arranged by Mr. S. J. Deeks in which local stars contributed was much appreciated by the big audience attending.

The cricket club ground was converted into a miniature fairyland, the pavilion being arranged into a comfortable dancing hall, to which the guests danced to the music of the Columbia Country Club orchestra until an early hour this morning.

The entertainers included the Silas brothers, Mrs. O'Hara, H. E. Muriel and other local artistes.

Carp Will Retire After His Match With Tom Gibbons

Boulogne (France), August 15.—Georges Carpentier will bid farewell to the fighting ring after he meets Tom Gibbons, the St. Paul light heavy weight in the United States next January, M. Descampes, the French champion's manager, announced today. He said that Carpentier would Fight an English boxer, not yet designated, in London some time in October or November; then he will meet a French heavy weight in Paris, previous to meeting Tom Gibbons for the light heavy weight championship of the world.

Yacht Club To Hold Its Annual Regatta

The Shanghai Yacht Club is to hold its annual Pagoda Reach Regatta next Sunday. The program will include a series of five races of about 20 minutes each over a triangular course. The handicaps will be made by the Vice-Commodore and the racing committee. It is probable that a cash sweep will be made on each event.

The 'Foam' is to leave at 9:45 o'clock in the morning and members who will want tiffin are notified to inform Mr. E. A. Brodie, honorary secretary.

TRAIN WRECK LAID AT DOORS OF MERKULOFFS

(Dalta News Agency)

Chita, September 1.—Regarding the derailment of an armored Japanese train at station Shmakovka on the Ussuri Railway, Mr. Antonoff, Chairman of the Maritime Provincial Administration, has declared to the Dalta correspondent that it not was hard to guess who were responsible for the incident.

"The Merkuloff government exists in Vladivostok only through the presence of Japanese forces," said Mr. Antonoff. "The evacuation of Japanese forces will cause its immediate collapse as it is supported by not a single element of the population. Therefore, Merkuloff's underlings are resorting to every means in order to delay the evacuation.

"One of their methods of creating further misunderstandings is to furnish false reports about the plans of the forces of the Far Eastern Republic to the Japanese Command, and the other is to instigate hostilities.

"It is certain that the hostility directed by the Japanese against Annuchino was instigated by the Merkuloffists through their reports of alleged intentional assaults upon the Japanese garrison by the Far Eastern forces commanded by Mr Lepetin."

The Chief and Assistant Inspectors of Militia of the Maritime Province and a member of the Japanese Military Mission made an examination of the place where an armored Japanese train was blown up near station Shmenovka on the Ussuri Railway. Before the arrival of these officials accompanied by some members of the Maritime Provincial Assembly at Iman, a detatchment of Kappelists already succeeded in removing the body of a person killed in the explosion and buried it in the vicinity. An investigation disclosed that the killed Russian had on his body Merkuloff's proclamation calling for the overthrow of Bolsheviks. The officials also discovered that three mines were laid under the track and that the first mine exploded and blew up the train. A peasant living nearby, when questioned, said that after the explosion the Japanese opened machine-gun fire on persons making for the woods.

Financial Statement Issued By Council

In a financial statement that is published in the current issue of the Municipal Gazette a comparison is made of the estimated income and expenditure of the Municipal government for the year ending December 31, 1921 with the annual income and expenditure for the half year ending June 30 last.

The estimated outlay for the year is Tls. 7,417,015 and estimated income for the year is Tls. 7,404,300 with a deficit of Tls. 12,715.

The actual expenditure for the half year just ended is Tls. 4,465,435.02 and the income for the period was Tls. 4,321,033.66, a deficit of Tls. 144,401.36.

Carpentier Had His Big Chance

nipped in the bud. As long as we live we will be thankful that Dempsey did not go down!

COPS WERE HELPLESS

Who would have stopped the rush of that mob? Those plucky Jersey cops? Poor weeds in the tide! But Dempsey did not go down. The boulder rolled back on Sisyphus! But it was a million dollar moment in the making. That will ever be the history of that fight. Dempsey's corner will confess some day the panic of that moment.

Little Joe Benjamin, splendid boxer and cronie of the champion, "went with" that terrific smash—that is to say, his better fighting judgment did—for high above the ear-splitting din of the moment, the moment when those close enough to see the partial paralysis in the champion's face, his sagging body and his numb legs, came Benjamin's shrill young voice—"Grab Him! Grab Him, Jack." Benjamin just blurted that out because he knew his friend, his big champion, had been rocked to the spinal cord.

The whole thing in a nutshell—the $1,000,000 moment bared to the bone—is that Carpentier cracked Dempsey on the chin for a clouting kingdom, and the king took it and came back for more. Came back for More! That's where Carpentier's heart—his great fighting heart—must have stopped beating for him. All that a man ever had in power, direction and speed he had given Dempsey but Jack took it and came back for more. Oh, true, Georges hit him again after that, but, don't you know, whether Georges realises it or not, there wasn't his all in any right-hander that followed that mighty $1,000,000 smash.

Stubborn Case of Boils & Pimples
"Can honestly say I am quite cured"

Our portrait is of Mr. W. BRIDAL, 27, Strand Street, Pontypridd, Mountain Ash, South Wales, Great Britain, who writes:

"It gives me great pleasure in telling you about the remarkable cure I found in Clarke's Blood Mixture for boils and pimples. After having suffered from time to time from both, and trying all kinds of so-called remedies, and being under doctor's treatment, I thought of Clarke's Blood Mixture, having tried it years ago with success for a similar complaint. After taking one bottle it seemed to drive them out, and after the second bottle I found a decided improvement, and continuing with your Mixture I can honestly say I am quite cured."

CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE, by reason of its remarkable blood purifying properties, can be relied upon to give speedy relief and lasting benefit in cases of Eczema, Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Boils, Pimples, Eruptions, Piles, Glandular Swellings, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Gout. Pleasant to take and free from anything injurious.

Health, Beauty And The Home

A Woman's Tool Kit

By Mrs. Christine Frederick,
The Distinguished Authority on Household Efficiency.

IS there any woman who can hammer a nail in straight? Is there any woman who can handle a blow torch or use a saw? Yes, indeed! Modern education is fast giving the lie to the old idea that every girl baby is born with an eggbeater and a package of needles in her cradle. There is no "sex difference" in work. We no longer believe that boys and men alone can use tools and understand mechanics.

In the old days, apparently never to return, it was possible to secure a "handy man" for $1 a day who would take storm windows off, put screens on, adjust the roller shades or put up an extra shelf in the kitchen. To-day the same man, if he can be found, asks $4 per day.

In face of the economic stringency some one must do some of the "chores" formerly done by this handy man. In short, the homemaker herself is being forced to do many mechanical odd jobs because she simply cannot secure or cannot afford to pay a man to do it.

As a matter of fact many women naturally like to handle tools. Driving their own automobiles has taught them the difference between a wrench and a screwdriver. Operating a washing machine teaches them something about a motor, what is meant by "shaft-driven" and how to handle levers. If the girl of to-day wishes to become the emancipated housekeeper of tomorrow she will have to devote more time to the understanding of machinery. If she cannot find (and pay for) a disappearing Lizzie she must certainly know how to handle and care for the mechanical servant which will wash, clean, sweep, iron and cook in Lizzie's place.

Every homemaker needs a kit of tools of her own. If she has to do these odd jobs herself she will certainly want tools of the right kind. She will not be satisfied with those bought to please her husband, nor will she be happy if they are so cheap that the small boy continually borrows and loses them. If I were asked to give a list of household tools which any woman would want and can use it would include the following:

A medium size hammer, two screwdrivers (medium and small), small pair pliers, Stillson wrench, monkey wrench, box opener and tack puller, small level, pair tinecutting shears, oil can, medium sized saw.

In addition to these tools she should keep on hand a small supply of assorted tacks, nails, brads, screws, etc. She can easily have constructed a small portable tool case made of four or six cigar boxes fastened together and having a simple wooden handle, or she may prefer a boughten tool chest or a box built in like a window seat in some part of the house. And from strong personal experience I should say that either chest or box needs a good padlock!

Only last year I was having some plumbing work done and I found on looking over the man's tools as they lay on the ground that he had calmly picked up my best wrench, costing $3, and laid it with his own. It is a common experience to have tools mysteriously disappear when there are workmen around the house.

On principle I am opposed to cheap tools. They do not stand up under wear. The dear little hammer for which we paid only a dime loses its head when we give it a smart blow; the screwdriver comes out of its handle, the blade comes out if it is a knife. It is simply impossible to make good steel and stout wood for so low a cost.

It is better for the woman who expects to use a few tools in her home for a number of years to pay a little more and get good ones. The dollar hammer will outlast ten of the dime variety, and there never was a wrench or screwdriver worthy of the name for so little cost.

A very helpful thing will be to send for the catalogues of the various manufacturers who make such tools; also, talk with mechanics and watch the tools they use when they do certain kinds of work.

My own Scotch grandmother used to talk about a woman who was "handless," by which she meant not able to do things, not familiar with what we now call mechanics—not able to build and manage a fire, to stop up a leak or to act efficiently in other little emergencies.

When I was travelling for the Government I visited many factories and ammunition plants. Often the overseer would remark: "You notice the number of girls we now employ who do work previously performed by men. You will be glad to know that these girls do equally good or even better work than the men they are supplanting."

Of course, women can handle tools—it is all a matter of training. And to-day, when labor is so costly and so scarce, it seems worth while to train our daughters to use a screwdriver as well as an eggbeater, and a wrench as well as a ladle. The successful homemaker of the future will be the woman with the knowledge and ability of women to operate power machines.

Summer Drink Recipes

By Mary Lee Swann,
The Well-Known Writer and Lecturer on Cooking.

Grape Juice Cup.

MIX 2 pints ginger ale with 1 pint grape juice. Have glasses nearly full of finely crushed ice and fill with the grape juice mixture.

Loganberry Punch.

TO 1 quart of loganberry juice add the juice of 4 lemons and 6 oranges, 2 cups of sugar syrup and 1 quart of ice water. Chill and add 3 or 4 mint leaves.

Chocolate Syrup.

MELT 4 squares of chocolate in top of double boiler. Add 1¾ cups sugar, a small pinch of salt and blend well. Add gradually, while stirring constantly, 1½ cups boiling water. Stir until smooth, bring to boiling point and boil 5 minutes. Cool, pour into a sterilized jar and place in ice box.

Ginger Ale Fruit Punch.

MIX 1 cup sugar with ¾ cup hot tea infusion. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Add ¾ cup orange juice, ¼ cup lemon juice and a few thin slices of orange and banana. Pour into punch bowl over a large square of ice and just before serving add 2 cups good ginger ale and 2 cups charged water.

Sugar Syrup for Fruit Beverages.

ALL fruit drinks are better if a boiled sugar syrup is used instead of sugar. To make an ordinary sugar syrup which can be used with any fruit juices boil 2 quarts water with 6 pounds sugar for 5 minutes. Remove the scum as necessary. Seal in hot sterilized jars. Use as needed to sweeten the diluted fruit juices.

Fruit Punch.

GRATE 1 pineapple or use 1 can of grated pineapple and boil with 3 cups hot water for 30 minutes. Strain, cool and add the juice of 6 lemons, the juice of 10 oranges, 1 quart strawberry or white grape juice, 1 cup of freshly made tea and 3 cups of sugar syrup. Cover and place on or near the ice for several hours. Add 1 gallon of ice water and, if desired, a bottle of sparkling water. Garnish with whole strawberries and mint leaves.

Pineapple Lemonade.

BOIL 1 cup of sugar in a pint of water ten minutes. Add 1 can grated pineapple and the juice of 3 lemons. Cool, strain and add 1 quart of ice water.

Chocolate Ice Cream Soda.

PUT 2 or 3 tablespoons of chocolate syrup in a tall glass, then add 2 tablespoons rich vanilla ice cream and fill the glass with soda water drawn from a siphon. Stir and serve immediately.

Delicious Punch.

MIX 1 cup pineapple juice and 1¼ cups white grape juice. Add 2 cups sparkling water and sweeten to taste. Pour into a large punch bowl, add 1 quart raspberry ice and serve immediately.

Lemon Cut Sugar.

WASH and dry 1 lemon. Rub the entire surface of cubes of block sugar over the lemon. Store in glass jars and use for sweetening afternoon tea. Orange sugar is prepared in similar fashion.

Raspberry Shrub.

PICK over and wash 3 quarts raspberries. Pour 1 quart mild vinegar over the berries and let stand over night. Drain through a double thickness of cheesecloth. Measure the juice and to each pint allow 2 cups of sugar. Mix well and boil thirty minutes. Pour into jars or bottles when cold.

Blackberry Lemonade.

PICK over and wash berries. Sprinkle with sugar and set aside in a warm place to draw out the juice. Press through a double thickness of cheesecloth. Half fill the glasses with the berry juice, add 2 or 3 tablespoons of lemon syrup and fill the glasses with crushed ice.

Iced Fruit Juice.

WASH and dry fresh mint leaves and arrange them lengthwise, at equal distances, in frappe cups, using 4 leaves to each cup. Fill the cups three-quarters full with finely crushed ice. Sweeten any desired fruit juice with sugar syrup to taste and pour it over the ice. Arrange the cups on small plates covered with small doilies. Serve with teaspoon as the first course of luncheon or supper.

The Secret of Happy Marriage

REAL love is fostered by close association. Therefore, complete association is the secret of success in marriage.—MME. JULES SIEGFRIED, the French suffrage leader.

SIXTY per cent of happiness in marriage can be secured by brutal honesty between husband and wife—that much at least. The other forty per cent, I should say, is based upon consideration of one for the other.—GERALDINE FARRAR, the grand opera prima donna.

HAPPINESS in married life is to be gained by the use of the old-fashioned virtues of unselfishness, consideration for others, politeness and kindness—all based on love and capped by common sense.—ELLA WHEELER WILCOX, famous poet and philosopher.

IN married life there is only one thing to do—to remember all the time that one could not hope to meet one quite great enough to be one's mate, and that this is the best the world can do. The thought that nobody can quite understand one or quite appreciate one arouses a delicious sorrow and an erroneous pride.—W. L. GEORGE, famous English author.

COMPANIONSHIP is the real secret of happy marriage. There is nothing on earth that has any real value when compared with the value of companionship, and its highest and fullest manifestation is reached in marriage. No companion can be to a man what his wife is—the other, better self to whom there is nothing you cannot speak of; for whom you must keep all your life clean and good, so that there shall never come into it anything that you cannot speak of.—W. B. MAXWELL, the English novelist.

EVERY true marriage is made in heaven. Marriage is not a mere union of bodies and minds, but it is that union of souls which makes "These twain one flesh," and nothing but sin can ever wreck a home. Religion, therefore, is the keystone to successful married life and to happy home life.—REV. DR. JOHN ROACH STRATTON, of Calvary Baptist Church, New York.

THE fundamental requisite of married happiness is love; not merely sex attraction, which may be wholly selfish, but love that is service, happier to give than to receive, willing to share.—MARY L. READ, director, New York School of Mothercraft.

THERE can be no happy marriage. The path of life is too narrow and two human beings, especially such different beings as man and woman, cannot walk it without jostling and annoying one another.—MICHAEL ARTZYBASHEFF, the great Russian writer.

WHEN the man gives protection and courtesy and love and rules with a strong and gentle hand and the woman gives tenderness and grace and sympathy, it will be a marriage made in heaven.—ELINOR GLYN, author of "Three Weeks."

THE ideal marriage is an association where all things, all desires and efforts, all work and all play are in common, and where there is a mutual sympathy. Following upon physical union comes union of the intelligence.—FIELDING HALL, author of "The Way of Peace."

IN ideal marriages there is a truce to sex-antagonism. The universal element of discord is ignored as though it had no existence. Such remarks as "How like a woman!" are not heard on the lips of the man; and his wife refrains from censures upon the opposite sex.—WALTER M. GALLICHAN, author of "Modern Woman."

IN some respects similarity between husband and wife in their social and intellectual tastes, moral standards, religious faith, refinement, love of children, rate of ability to progress, degree of seriousness or frivolousness, ardor and expression of affection makes for congenial daily living. In some respects complementary qualities are desirable. If one is impatient, for example, the other may well possess a degree of patience and sense of humor to meet this.—MARY L. READ, author of "The Mothercraft Manual."

What to Feed Your Goldfishes

THE health of goldfishes depends very largely on what they get to eat, and in a recent bulletin of the New York Zoological Society Ida M. Mellen explains just what sort of diet they require at various ages in order to thrive as they should.

During the first three days or so of its life the goldfish secures its nourishment from the yolk sac with which it is provided at birth. When this is exhausted the young fishes need to be fed at first six or eight times a day.

The proper food for this period is the microscopic vegetable and animal organisms which are so numerous in certain ponds that they make the water look pink or green.

But it is not necessary to seek out these ponds in order to provide the fishes with the food they need. There are preparations on the market which will produce these organisms when placed in water, or they can be bred by making infusions of various substances.

Some young goldfishes have been observed to feed better on bright than on dark days, and all goldfishes feed better in cool than in warm water. The diet of microscopic organisms may be alternated with a sprinkling of rice flour on the surface, the finest dust from soda or graham crackers, oatmeal broth, a little blood pressed from raw beef, or juice similarly pressed from a clam, oyster or mussel.

Algae growing on old plants or the sides of tanks is much appreciated, also the fine dust from the various prepared fish foods such as dried ground shrimp and ground puppy biscuit. There are excellent preparations of baby fish food on the market, two different varieties of which may be bought and mixed, or fed alternately.

All foods must be given sparingly. The rule of feeding little and feeding often cannot be improved upon.

Oatmeal broth or the yolk of a hard-boiled egg strained through cheesecloth or a fine tea-strainer furnishes a splendid food during the first three months—the most delicate period in the goldfish's life. It will find some food substances in clean earth, which can be suspended in a saucer.

If carried safely through the first six weeks baby goldfishes may be permitted a variety of foods, such as small crustaceans and mosquito larvae. If these are collected in open ponds it is best to strain them through a fine sieve.

Strained boiled oatmeal and egg-yolk may be continued until the fishes are large enough to eat the oatmeal itself, which may be fed either cooked or ground raw.

Puppy biscuit and cereals of all sorts, vermicelli and dry bread crumbs, all ground to a powder, dried codfish, and the common prepared fishfoods of dried shrimp, ant eggs, etc., may be fed. Chopped meal worms and earthworms are favorite foods. Very finely scraped raw beef or boiled fish may also be used.

The number of feedings should be gradually decreased so that at the end of three months there shall be but one meal a day. Goldfishes are always greedy and adult specimens in captivity will overeat and, lacking the exercise that wild specimens have, develop indigestion, fatty degeneration and other sicknesses if care is not taken.

At four months the young fishes should be well formed and the breeder will need no further advice on feeding, except a word as to common foods for adult goldfish.

Adult goldfishes should be fed daily, or six days a week. It is highly desirable to give them something different each day of the six and this can easily be done.

Scraped raw beef, raw fish, oyster, mussel or clam, chopped mealworms or earthworms, small crustaceans, mosquito larvae and the red water-worm where procurable, toasted breadcrumbs, boiled or baked white potato, cereals powdered raw or cooked, yolks of hard boiled eggs, ant eggs, boiled roe of marine fishes, dog biscuit ground in a coffee mill, finely crushed or boiled vermicelli, and the prepared fish foods—all are wholesome and much relished.

A goldfish, like a cat lapping a saucer of milk, likes to rest when half-way through the meal. Its teeth are in its throat, and it will be observed to chew its food thoroughly before swallowing.

Sometimes it takes so much that one feels sure there is a reserve supply held in the mouth while the teeth are working on the first morsel taken. After one mouthful is disposed of a second is greedily sought and the fish works industriously, literally standing on its head to gather up such food as falls to the bottom of the tank.

Giving a "Travel Party"

THIS is an especially timely party to give in July, when people are planning to travel or wish they were going away if they are not, says Alice Burrell, author of "The Party Complete."

Invite your guests to take a trip around the world with you, starting on a certain day at a certain time. Prepare little booklets—one for each guest—with the title "Places and Countries That I Saw on My Trip Around the World."

All over the house you will scatter cities and countries of the world. For instance, you will have a thick mutton chop for England, a shamrock for Ireland, a coat for Ulster, a cork for the town of that name, olives for California, cigars for Havana, a big shoe for Chicago, grapes for France, spaghetti for Italy, tea for China, Japanese cup and saucer for Japan, a bottle of perfumery for Cologne, a piece of manila paper for Manila, a ukulele for Hawaii, and so on.

The possibilities are endless. Each article should be numbered and the same number put down in the booklet.

At the end of the given time all the booklets must be handed to the hostess and a prize is awarded the one who has made the greatest number of correct guesses.

Another game that I have always found great fun is "Summer Resorts." Cut pictures from the folders sent out by hotels and railroads and paste these pictures at the top of separate sheets of paper. Then ask your guests to write the most glowing advertisements they can to go with the pictures that they have been given.

This game could be changed the other way around. The printed descriptions could be given and the guests could be asked to draw a picture to illustrate these descriptions.

Serve your refreshments in railroad lunch counter fashion. Have a long, high table at one end of the room, with high stools. On this table have plates heaped high with sandwiches, cake, pie and fruit. Use thick plates and heavy cups and saucers. Announce through a megaphone that the next stop will be "Eating Junction—twenty minutes for refreshments."

You will enjoy planning such a party as this and your guests will be delighted with the novelty of it.

Household Helps

Save the Heels.

WHEN discarding children's stockings save all the heels for use in patching other heels that have holes too large to darn.

Butterless Corn.

BUTTER will hardly be missed from canned corn when it is seasoned with salt, a little sugar and paprika.

When You Sweep.

ALWAYS sweep away from yourself and in one general direction, with the warp threads first and then across.

Laying Linoleum.

BEFORE linoleum is tacked into position let it lie loose on the floor at least a month, so that it can stretch enough to prevent buckling.

Tin Chair Seats.

THE life of chair seats of the fibre or pasteboard type can be prolonged by putting sheet tin, cut slightly larger than the seat, over the chair, and fastening it with two or three tacks. Then put the fibre seat on top of the tin.

Leaky Bags.

LEAKY hot water bags can be made to do their work a little longer by filling with either heated sand or salt.

Sure Death for Flies.

MIX in a saucer one tablespoonful each of cream, ground black pepper and brown sugar. Darken the room except for one window and in this place the saucer.

Don't Shake Rugs.

HOLDING rugs by one end and shaking is liable to loosen the threads at the border so that the edges will begin to ravel.

Making Jelly.

AS a rule the shorter the time you cook fruit juice after adding the sugar the lighter and more delicately colored the finished product will be.

Restoring Colors.

THE color can be restored to lavender or pink wash shirtwaists by soaking for ten minutes in cold water to which a half cupful of vinegar has been added to every quart. Wring out and iron while slightly damp.

Business and Official Notices

Customs Notification
No. 976.

With reference to Customs Notifications Nos. 929 and 951.

Duty on Chinese tea of all varieties, shipped abroad, is remitted for a period of 2 years from 10th Oct., 1919:

I have to notify the public that, in accordance with instructions received from the Inspector General of Customs, the following rules are to be given effect to as from the 15th August, 1921 with regard to the export of tea:

(1) The period of exemption of all kinds of Chinese tea exported abroad from Maritime Customs duties and half exemption from inland duties is extended for a further period of one year from the 10th October, 1921. Further extension for a period of one year will be applied for in May or June next year.

(2) During the above period of exemption no Maritime or Native Customs duties or inland taxes shall be levied on 1918 and 1919 teas of all kinds (originally intended for export abroad) in stock at Shanghai, Hankow, etc., whether exported abroad, or sent coastwise or inland. When such tea is reported for sale in the interior covering huchao shall be issued by the Superintendent of Customs at Shanghai, Hankow, etc., to facilitate its examination and release en route.

(3) All bonds (or deposits) for 1918 and 1919 teas of all kinds (originally intended for export abroad), now held by the various Maritime and Native Customs are to be cancelled (or returned) but as regards teas of 1920 or later years with the exception laid down in Rule 4, bonds or deposits now held remain in force and continue to be required in future. (N.B.) The term "1918 and 1919 teas" is to be interpreted to mean "teas passed through the Maritime Customs before 1st January, 1920 (i.e. including pre-1918 teas) still in stock and under Customs control."

(4) Black tea and brick and tablet tea of 1920 and later years (i.e. up to 9th October, 1922) whether originally covered by bond or not are to be free also from domestic export and coast trade duties when exported coastwise before 10th October, 1922. They will before that date only be liable to half Native Customs duties as in the case of teas exported abroad. No bond or Native Customs half duty deposit is necessary for these teas and any bonds or Native Customs half duty deposits now held should be cancelled or refunded. If sent inland from another port they will be liable to the usual inland charges.

(5) All bonds, re-exportation passes, and repack permits, issued before 10th October, 1922, which are not cancelled under the above rules hold good to 9th October, 1923. All bonds, etc., issued on or after 10th October, 1922 to hold good for one year only.

(6) Teas which are not exported abroad within the period of exemption will not, even though covered by bonds, etc., be entitled to exemption but only to re-export privileges up to the date on which the bonds expire.

Merchants are requested to apply for the cancellation of bonds or return of deposits as laid down in Rules 3 and 4 so that, in the case of pre-1920 teas, the consignments can be identified and Special Exemption Certificates or Superintendent's huchao issued if moved coastwise or inland before 10th October, 1922 (vide Rule 2).

NOTICE

China exports every year vast quantities of Kashmir, Thibetan wool, camel's wool, Kansu and Manchurian sheep's wool, and goat's wool. On the other hand China imports every year almost every woollen article such as woollen yarns, blankets, rugs, carpets, woollen underwear cloth, etc.

Labour is cheap in China and yet there is not one woollen mill in operation.

We have complete specifications and estimates for a woollen mill able to turn out, yarn, blankets, rugs, carpets, woollen underwear, cloth, etc. We have also an engineer on the spot. We shall be glad to give particulars to interested parties. Only those able to command or obtain the capital necessary for such an enterprise need apply to Box 687, THE CHINA PRESS.

Hongkong Share Market

Messrs. Moxon and Taylor of Hongkong state as follows in their weekly share report dated Hongkong, September 2:

There has been a fair amount of business doing during the week under review and prices with few exceptions hawe been well maintained.

The Shanghai Market has improved considerably, and closes very firm with buyers all round.

Rubber continues featureless.

The following are the chief alterations since last week:

Hongkong Banks:—A fair number of old shares have changed hands at $732½ and new shares (£35 paid) at $435.

Cantons:—Came to business at $400, and close with further buyers at the rate.

Unions:—Have been done at $228 9, and close with buyers at the former rate.

Hongkong Docks:—Have been the medium of a fair business and close with buyers at $192½.

Deferred Indos:—London have again come into the market but there are no sellers here at their quotations. London Register could probably be bought at $290, Hongkong Register at $285.

China Sugars:—Have declined to $180, at which price a few shares changed hands.

Cements:—Have again been the medium of a fair business and close with buyers at $17 cash.

Hongkong Lands:—Are wanted at $197½.

Shanghai Docks:—Have firmed up and close with buyers at Tls. 125½ but no sellers.

Humphreys:—Are wanted at $10.10.

Shell Transports—Have come to business at varying prices round about 95/—, and sellers are now asking 100/—.

CHINA'S CASE At The CONFERENCE, IV.

BY J. E. DOYLE

AMERICA has been the chief spokesman in voicing the open door policy and the principle of maintaining the continued sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Chinese State and her ideas regarding "special interests" of Japan in China are well known. The Government of the United States has been emphatic in disavowing the idea that Japan's "special interests" had a connotation that would support a claim on Japan's part to exercise political control in or over China. Even the idea of a special political influence has been repudiated.

Japan has consistently and continually insisted that she will maintain the "open door" policy but in Shantung the Japanese have shown absolute disregard for political jurisdictional rights of the Chinese Government, in addition to succeeding in a wholesale attempt to dominate Tsingtao's wharves and harbor, control a new business and industrial section built since 1915, and operate the former private-owned German railway which traverses productive Shantung.

From the minute that Japanese landed troops at Lungkow on the far northern coast of Shantung in disregard of the protests of the neutral Government of China, Japan has continued to make changes and establish garrisons and acquire territory without consulting China or any other power. Japan has been ruthless in Shantung. Her economic occupation has been complete. Her soldiers have been placed at strategic points, without consideration of precedents established by Germany or "face" demanded by China.

AMERICA'S RESERVATION

America's avowed policy of insisting that China's sovereign rights be maintained was responsible for the Senate Reservation which does not admit Articles 156, 157 and 158 of the Peace Treaty as binding on the Government of the United States. These are the sections by which "Germany renounces in favor of Japan all her rights, titles and privileges" in Shantung.

Because of these articles the Chinese delegates to Versailles refused to sign the Treaty of Peace and the Chinese Government not only made reservations but has since refused to negotiate directly with Japan on "the return" of Kiaochow. It will be remembered that before refusing to sign the Peace Treaty, the Chinese delegates offered to agree to the transfer of German rights to Japan if Great Britain, France, Italy and the United States were made joint trustees and the undertaking given that the Leased Territory should revert to China within a year. Because Japan flatly objected, this compromise was rejected at the Versailles Conference.

INTERESTS ARE SMALL

Except for the maintenance of the open door policy, America has little interest in Shantung today. She is not an economic factor and her manufactured goods are handled in nearly all cases by firms of other nationalities. The powerful American locomotives that haul trains on the Shantung Railway were sold to the Railway Administration by Mitsui Bussan Kaisha, a Japanese firm, and Cornabe, Eckford and Company, a British house, which holds several other American agencies. The American flag contributed but Hk. Taels 90,000 in customs revenue during 1920, entering and clearing but 74 of the 2,500 ocean steamers which touched the port that year. American firms who tried to establish direct connections instead of allowing the tremendous amount of Shantung exports to go through Japan were signally beaten. The International Banking Corporation closed its Branch. The Pacific Mail Steamship Company refuses to send steamers to Tsingtao and the house that acted as its agent, F. J. Bardens, has closed.

Now and then we hear of a cooperage plant sold to a Japanese oil mill by an American who has traveled Manchuria and Shantung for the last ten years. But the Americans are not factors in the business world of Tsingtao. Neither are the British nor the French, Germans, Danes or the Italians. The door is wide open, so it is said, but no one but the Japanese are entering.

AMERICAN FIRMS

The three big American interests are the Standard Oil Company, the China Pacific Company which has a ship in port once a month, and William Katz and Company. The last named firm is 51 percent American and 49 percent Japanese, Okura and Company having purchased a share of the business. The American Trading Company is represented by a Japanese, and a Chinese looks after the office of the Singer Sewing Machine Company. The Horne Machine Company is the other American firm on Tsingtao's principal street. It can be seen that Americans cut little economic ice in Tsingtao.

Because the Shantung Issue has never been settled, Americans are of course handicapped. The status of American citizens is one of the most interesting sidelights on life in this city that has become so important internationally since the Treaty of Versailles.

There are 51 Americans in Tsingtao and since the American Government does not recognise Japan's authority to German rights and her representatives have no official dealings with the Japanese, the citizens of the United States of America are virtually without a country. Their only recourse is to the Japanese Courts. And to their credit it can be said that they go along the best they can under the circumstances and seldom ask assistance from the Japanese officialdom which their country does not recognise.

CONSUL IS UNOFFICIAL

The present representative of the American Government has no official standing with the Japanese nor does he recognise the Japanese officially. On the Fourth of July or on any other day he does not fly the Stars and Stripes from the building on Akebanemachi (formerly Bismarck Strasses) which he occupies, a dwelling owned by an American and leased by our State Department. Incidentally last Fourth of July the Consul took part in the celebration because he is an American citizen and probably enjoys baseball and perhaps likes to dance. He could not hold an "official reception."

A consular official describing the technical difficulty of Americans put it to me in the following words: "Americans have no official status. We do not recognise the Japanese and the Japanese do not recognise us. The American flag does not fly from the building we occupy because we do not subscribe to the Japanese mandate."

I asked the Civil Governor, Dr. Akiyama: "What is the status of the American consular authorities in the eyes of the Japanese Administration?" and his answer was as follows:

"We have always had friendly relations with the American consular authorities in Tsingtao and we will help them as ever to find more spaces for American business men, who are to be treated here on equal grounds with Japanese residents."

Little light was given by the affable Dr. Akiyama but it is noted that he did not let slip the opportunity to aver again that the door is open.

DETAILED FROM TSINAN

Meanwhile the vice consul and his assistant detailed for duty from the consulate at Tsinan are doing the best they can. They vise passports, discuss the weather with the captains of the American freighters entering the port once a month, do all the routine work of any consular office, give advice, attempt to settle American difficulties by "arbitration," keep cases out of the Japanese courts, play tennis and swim at the Strand Beach.

Before Japan took the port, W. R. Peck, now Chinese secretary at the American Legation in Peking, was the consul in Tsingtao and he retained a sort of a de facto status until 1919 when the consulate was closed. In July of 1920, N. F. Allman, now in Shanghai, was detailed to Tsingtao from Tsinan and remained there until March of this year when he was succeeded by the present incumbent, H. L. Milbourne, a man who has been in the consular service but a short time.

Mr. Milbourne has an American assistant, a Chinese clerk and a Japanese interpreter, Mr. T. Yamamoto, who has been with the consular office (it must not be called a consulate) since it re-opened on July 8 of last year.

THE AMERICAN GROUCH

There is one real cause for an American grouch and in Western eyes it is construed as an affront wholly unnecessary and particularly insulting. With the Japanese flag came the red light district for Seito, as the Japanese have designated Tsingtao, even as baseball followed the Stars and Stripes to Havana, Colon or Iloilo. This section of the new civilisation for Tsingtao was placed nearly directly opposite the Presbyterian Mission. As an American missionary said to me: "There were a million other places they could have put it."

A small item in an issue of world importance but a detail significant of the Japanese attitude toward the feelings of the Westerner, granting even that the selection of the present site was a thoughtless error.

I have tried to show that Americans are not important in the Tsingtao commercial world, that the Japanese have literally hogged Tsingtao and have made it nigh impossible for Americans or any other foreigners to aid in the development of one of China's richest provinces and not only that, they have exceeded German rights and powers and privileges in their economic onslaught of Shantung even as their soldiers watched.

And these foreigners join with China in a cry for a just settlement of the Shantung Issue. These foreigners who have no axes to grind want the diplomats of the world to hear China's case at the conference—for they believe that China has been wronged in Shantung by a nation whose Premier cabled to the New York Independent a statement in which he said: "As Premier of Japan I have stated and I now again state to the people of America and of the world that Japan has no ulterior motive, no desire to secure more territory, no thought of depriving China or any other peoples of anything which they now possess."

And he added (perhaps significantly, who knows?) "My Government and my people have given their word and their pledge, which will be as honorably kept as Japan always keeps promises."

A FILTHY PRACTICE

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Sir,—When in the Hongkew Market this morning about eleven o'clock, I was appalled to see workmen in the meat section seated on the tables and in many instances with their feet on the tables as well. Meat was still displayed for sale and the bare feet were perilously near it. A customer enquired regarding the price of a piece of meat, and the workman slipped down from his perch on the table, and dragged the meat in question directly over the spot on which his feet had rested. As it is reported that Cholera is prevalent in the city at present it occurs to me that special supervision of these places might be a very good thing just now.

MARCH OF EVENTS

BY BRUCE HOPPER

WHEN Gorky's appeal for food came out of Russia the entire world responded in the name of humanity to stay what threatens to be one of the most terrible of historical calamities.

Food supplies are arriving at Riga, international effort is organised, but the barrier between the bread and the mouths of the Volga peasants is the Soviet government which has begun to throw clogs into the machinery for relief.

What is the game of the Soviets? Do they fear the "power of food" to affect their political control? Are they taking advantage of the generosity of the nations toward the peasantry to clinch their demands for recognition? It is their country which is ravaged by famine and plague, it is Russians who are in blind flight from horrible destitution. But the Soviet attitude seems to be that European nations and America must pay at the Moscow toll gate for the gifts of provisions sent to their starving subjects.

WORKING people of Europe and America have responded to the call for funds in Russian relief, and they should be gratified, according to the Soviet idea, to know their sacrifices made for the Volga peasants may be reaped by the Red soldiery, as was the first shipment from Riga to Moscow.

Time is elaborately thrown away. The International Relief Committee has been promised the direction of relief at Moscow, but the answer to their request for permission to visit the famine districts is a counter-request for enormous credits. The Soviets make no mention of those repudiated debts which have gone the way of the snows of yesterday.

Unqualified truth has long ago abandoned hope of ever passing the portals of Russia to the outer world. What really takes place is ever a mystery. But in parley with the representatives of other nations sometimes issues become clear.

IN the last negotiation the International Relief Committee suggested using the Black sea ports, which are the natural bases of supply for the famine districts. The Soviets insist that Petrograd shall be center of relief distribution, although Petrograd is thousands of miles from the lower Volga and Don districts.

If the anxiety of the powers to bring relief to the suffering peasantry dictates consent to the Soviet scheme then the highly perfected system of the American Relief Commission, and the organisation of the League of Nations, will be continually subjected to the officiousness of Moscow promoters of Soviet aggrandisement.

The American Red Cross in Siberia refused all governmental and military offers for channels of distribution of relief supplies. No food nor clothing was issued save by a Red Cross worker direct to the persons needing supplies. Unless such measures are strictly adhered to in the present famine relief the threatened annihilation of the Volga peasantry will become a certainty this winter.

ANGORA, the capital of the Turk Nationalists, has fallen to the Greek army, says a Smyrna telegram. But the occupation of Angora does not mean that the Greeks have conquered Mustapha Kemal, who is as slippery as Villa in Mexico. The Greeks are now far from their base at Brousa, in a mountainous country, and harassed by guerilla bands of no definite politics.

They have done military wonders in spite of the withdrawal of the Allies' financial support. But their little country has already been impoverished for the sake of the Pan-Hellenic dream, and to keep the hinterland of Smyrna subdued will require more military organisation that Greece is able to put in the field.

If the Greeks really are in Angora it is time for the Allies to hold a review of reviews on the Treaty and Revision of the Treaty of Sevres.

THE NEW SIN

Can it be true? They say that you're a
Madman to touch the cocktail there,
That poison lies in Angostura,
That sherry's just a fatal snare.
Should you but drain a teeny-weeny
Vermouth, death lurks within the cup,
You'll find in every dry Martini
Distilled damnation's pick-me-up!

* * *

And so sophisticated ladies
Who take peach bitters laced with gin,
Learn you are heading straight for Hades;
You're simply sipping liquid sin!
Yet, though these nips turn friends to squabblers,
I offer you one ray of hope:
Just patch things up with sherry-cobblers;
Remember, while there's life there's dope.

A NOVEL EXPERIENCE

Viceroys, like kings and other exalted personages, rarely carry any ready money about with them.

Recently Lord Reading, the new Viceroy of India, was playing bridge and won two rupees from a General commanding the northern division.

"Shall I write you a chit for it, your Excellency?" asked the General.

"No, give it to me, for goodness' sake," said Lord Reading. "It will be the first real cash I've been allowed to handle for myself since I came to this country, and I've been here nearly two months."

TOO MUCH FOR PA

Mr. Israel Zangwill, himself a school teacher in his young days, has been telling the story of how a class of school children had been struggling with the problem: "If a cask contains four and a half gallons, how many times can a glass holding a pint be filled from it?"

It proved too much for them, and, as it was near the end of the afternoon, the teacher said: "Well, boys, you can take that sum home as your homework tonight and let me know the answer tomorrow morning."

Next morning one member of the class turned up an hour late. He brought a written excuse—a scribbled note on a rough piece of paper. It read:

"Will teacher please excuse Tommy for being late, and please do not give him any more of those sums for homework. My husband spent all the evening working at it, with two friends to help him. In consequence we are all late up this morning, and my husband is not fit to go to work today, and has forgotten the answer."

THESE CHILDREN

Willie (to his father, who had recently married a second time): "There's a shop in the High Street just like you, Daddy."

Father: "Shop like me, What do you mean?"

Willie (getting near to the door): "Why, it's entirely under new management."

"COMMANDER" Stories
(Admiral Sir Edward H. Seymour)

The Nancy, a brig of Baltimore, left that place in 1799, and was captured by H. M. S. Sparrow and taken to Port Royal, Jamaica, her cargo being contraband of war.

The case was being tried in the Vice, Admiralty Court at Kingston, and would have been dismissed, had not the Commander of H. M. S. Abergavenny produced certain papers which he found inside a shark caught off Jacmel by the Ferret, tender to the above ship.

These papers, together with others found in the Nancy led to the condemnation of the brig and her cargo.

The Humanised Hotel

(New York Times)

The Chicago Journal of Commerce waxes enthusiastic over a suggestion that the hotel manager should revive "human interest" in his patrons. On their arrival he should welcome them solicitously, inquire as to their plans and wishes, and all during their stay lavish upon them "those friendly and unselfish attentions which are at the root of human friendship."

This is a pretty large order, especially in the case of a hotel capable of accommodating 2,000 guests. To make them all feel intimately at home a whole army of bustling humanisers would be required. There is, no doubt, something in the idea worth considering. The atmosphere of some hotels seems to the incoming stranger to be charged with armed neutrality. He has to fight or "tip" his way to what he wants. This sort of thing should be remedied, if only as a matter of business, but it may be doubted if the sentimental, heart-to-heart attitude urged by the Chicago paper would please the more discriminating hotel patrons. They would rather resent being gushed over and patted on the back. Good service they, of course, desire, but they like it to be of the silent and unostentatious kind. The man who loves to take his ease in his inn might well flee in disgust from an offensively "humanised" hotel.

Bobbie And His Pa

BY WILLIAM F. KIRK

On such days like this, sed Pa wen he caim hoam last nite, I feel like planting myself under a tree and not doing no work whatsoevver.

Work on, sed Ma, work on. We will all be planted under the trees soon enuff, sed Ma. Work for the rate is cumming wen men work no moar, sed Ma.

I have vary littel Pep fir work on such days like these, sed Pa.

Perhaps not, sed Ma, but we all have work to do, jest the saim. What wud you do if you was a laborer on them South Sea Ilands? sed Ma.

I wud strike, sed Pa.

The wurld needs the labor of yure giant brane, sed Ma.

Oh, that is so, sed Pa. I haddent thunk of it in that lite, sed Pa. I will toil on, sed Pa, on and on into the purpel twilite of my existens, sed Pa.

That will be simply gorgus of you, sed Ma. and we will have lots of munny, sed Ma.

You see, Bobbie sed Pa, what is the lot of a hustand and father on this heer plannit, sed Pa. He may feel hot and tired and have a hedake, sed Pa, but he must toil on and on.

You doant toil so very hard, I sed. Jimmie Obrine's dad has to work on the Seckshun, I sed. He works 12 hours a day and has to lug his dinner along in a tin pale, I sed.

But my work is brane work, sed Pa, which is much moar ex-austing on the whole, sed Pa. I shud say that it is 2 times as exausting as fizzickal labor, sed Pa. and a riter not only tires hisself, sed Pa, he tires others, Pa sed.

I haddent thot of that, sed Ma You poor deer, sed Ma to Pa, wont you have sum ice tea?

You always think my work is sinch, sed Pa. I cannot comprehend it, sed Pa.

No, I doant think that, sed Ma, but you have things much nicer than what a mill hand has things, sed Ma. You doant have to lift heavvy lodes all day.

Missus Jones says she is glad we have went Probishun, I sed, beekaus now her husband doesnt cum hoam with lodes, I sed.

Then Ma and Pa laffed but I doant see nothing to laff at. I guess lots of peepul doant see so much to laff at since Probishun.

HEREBT RAWLINSONR
In the dramatic and artistic six part screen sensation
"PASSERS BY"
(by Haddon Chambers)

What in this world interests you more?

People, men, women, children: the most fascinating, interesting and attractive forces in the world are human beings.

That is why you will be interested in seeing this extraordinary drama of humanity.

AMUSEMENTS

TO-NIGHT APOLLO TO-NIGHT
and Friday, Saturday & Sunday—September 9, 10 & 11

A Triangle special attractive feature with that beautiful loveable little devil of the screen

OLIVE THOMAS

in a play that makes Paris real to you

"TOTON"

6 parts magnificent picture — 6 parts story of love and revenge

"TOTON" is full to overflowing with sympathetic appeal. It casts the shadows of an Apache's artful revenge, and reflects the beauty of lasting love, in a manner never heretofore surpassed upon the screen.

USUAL PRICES

"TOTON" is a picture you will like. You have seen Olive Thomas in many plays but this is the best of her. It is a play that will hold you entranced to the last charming scene.
